The Adams River Salmon Society Thanksgiving Market 2019 Application Form

Market Policy

The Adams River Salmon Society's "Thanksgiving Market" is an event that celebrates a diversity of cultures, heritages and conservation. The Society wishes to reflect the same principles in its' Vendor Market. We would like to feature local vendor of various disciplines, from Artisans, Authors, Buskers Performance Artist to Market Gardeners. We wish to feature artists who create their own hand-made items that focus on the salmon and Tsútswekw Provincial Park, as well as local grown produce. Vendors (except Authors) must grow, raise, harvest, bake or make 100% of the products that they sell. Authors must reside in the Shuswap Region.

The Adam's River Salmon Society will provide:

- 10' x 10' display space, power supply extra.

Vendors responsibilities are:

- Provide a lists of their items with retail prices or list of crops. All items will be priced at the same rate that they are sold for in any other location.
- Vendors are expected to insure their own items.
- provide own tent and tables if required. Supply and securing of canopies, umbrellas, tables, etc. is the responsibility of individual vendors. Liability for any damage or injury caused by insecure fixtures is the responsibility of the vendor
- Vendors are responsible for cleaning their sites at the end of each Market day; this includes removing any and all vendor garbage. Vendors may not use the BC Park's garbage cans to dispose of sample containers, cardboard boxes, fruit and vegetable culls, etc
- only bio-degradeable tableware for sampling can be use. Absolutely no plastic.
- organic growers must display certification
- Busking or Performance Artist equipment must be approved by The Adams River Salmon Society prior to event.
